

Harmonization of our environment, bodies, and water

Somavedic Journey

Somavedic journey begins in the famous Crystal Valley of the Czech Republic where its hand-blown glass housing unit is made. From there it travels to Lovosice, where uniquely blended precious and semi-precious stones, energy amplifiers, and precious metals are precisely assembled into its heart. The curation of these materials creates a coherent 360-degree harmonious field of 100 feet in all directions penetrating through the walls.

During the last 10 years of its existence, Somavedic has been shipped to over 58 countries and helped more than 150,000 people worldwide.

The company vision is that everyone has a healthy space to thrive. At home. At work. Everywhere.

Feel Better. Live Better.

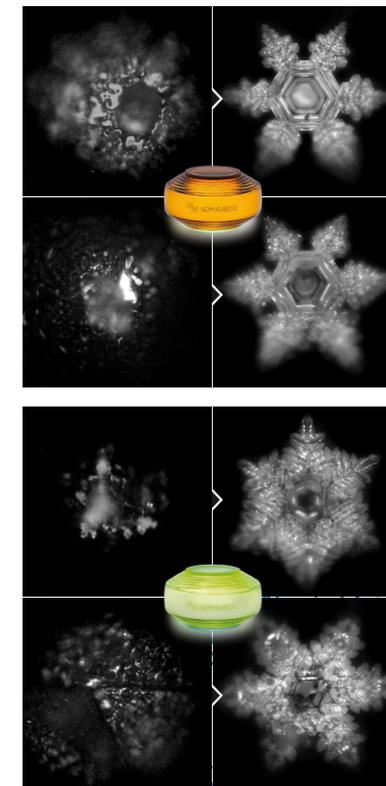

Structured water

Structured water is alive and full of natural energy that our bodies need

Dr. Masaru Emoto, the Japanese scientist, has proved that water receives information from its environment and stores them. This way it changes its quality and structure. The changed quality of water has then great effects on human organism even though the composition has not changed. Thanks to the photos of frozen water crystals, we gain information about its quality. Energized "alive" water, e.g. from clean springs, creates beautiful six-sided crystals, whilst chemically treated "dead" water has its crystals deformed.

What is electrosmog and what are its consequences?

Electrosmog is an electromagnetic radiation that is coming out of high-voltage power lines, BTS (cellphone) towers, smartphones, wi-fi routers, computers, Bluetooth devices, TVs, and other different devices. It is scientifically proven that electromagnetic radiation induces harmful oxidization processes in human cells that are caused by free radicals. These have a negative influence on our health and are considered the cause of aging. Somavedic successfully eliminates all these influences that are affecting us practically 24hrs a day.

Where do free radicals come from and what do they cause?

Excessive free radicals block the regenerative processes that take place in our bodies during night. They arise as a result of the harmful effect of EMF, but also because of smoking, various pharmaceuticals, stress, etc. They cause a chemical reaction in our bodies, so-called oxidation that is considered the cause of tiredness, chronic inflammation, etc. At the same time, there is a suspicion that diseases such as Alzheimer or Parkinson's as well as autoimmune diseases are associated with oxidative stress and the harmful effects of excessive levels of free radicals on our cells. Somavedic can handle these excessive levels of free radicals and helps our bodies regenerate faster.

Structured water; the same type of water we have in our cells

Water is the basis of all life. Natural water, for example from a spring, is full of vital energy and contains substantial levels of antioxidants. This kind of water naturally creates vortexes and streams, and is charged by the energy that is subsequently naturally passed on to our bodies. As a result of modern treatment and pipeline transportation of water, it loses its natural energy. In some cases it even has 0% energy, therefore our bodies don't want to accept such water and excrete it immediately. Somavedic was designed to harmonize all of these negative influences. Our bodies love the structured water by Somavedic.

What are the geopathic zones (GPZ)?

Geopathic zones are places that show a measurable deviation from the natural magnetic field. They are caused by for example flowing underground rivers, or by human intervention into the layers of Earth. Their influence can often cause low quality of sleep, headaches, back pains, or fatigue. If a geopathic zone hits a technical field (connected with e.g. BTS towers and with electro installations), our immune system is being weakened. On top of that, these zones constantly move under the Earth's surface so we can't solve them by moving our bed or office chair. Somavedic can easily handle these zones and eliminate their negative influence with 100% efficacy.

How does Somavedic work?

Somavedic neutralizes the negative influence that electromagnetic radiation and geopathic zones have on our bodies. The technology of Somavedic is based on the scientific knowledge of frequency therapies, for centuries known traditional Eastern Medicine, and the healing effects of gemstones.) The controlled release of energy from precious and semi-precious stones, which create the heart of Somavedic, neutralizes the effects of excessive free radicals. Used precious metals amplify the electromagnetic frequencies of gemstones and thus create a natural energy field that harmonizes all of the mentioned negative effects. Somavedic creates a coherent, life-supporting field with the radius of 30m (100feet) in all directions, penetrating floors and walls.

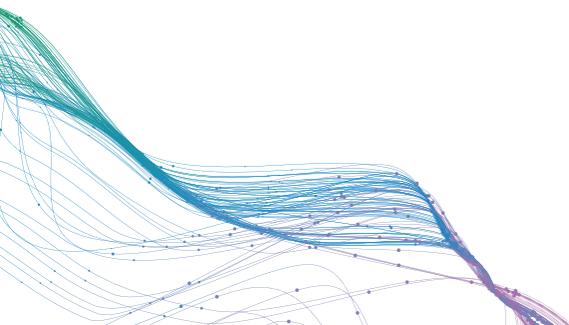

Treating water by Somavedic

Two of our models can create harmonized, structured water. Such water has then the following impact:

- Restores its natural crystal structure
- Gains optimal level of pH and redox (proven on 95% of water test samples)

Thanks to that, our cells are able to hydrate better and protect themselves against excessive free radicals. We can easily achieve this by putting water next to the Somavedic, ideally not further than 20cm (8inches) away. The desired effect of 100% structured water occurs in 10-15min. Our clients then describe this water as light, smooth, sweet, or gentle.

Evaluating the influence of the radiation of a commercially available current mobile phone on cell regeneration/wound healing of connective tissue fibroblasts, and the formation of superoxide anion radical of functional neutrophils in the course of an oxidative burst. Moreover, how Somavedic Amber might be able to reduce the cellular effects of mobile phone radiation.

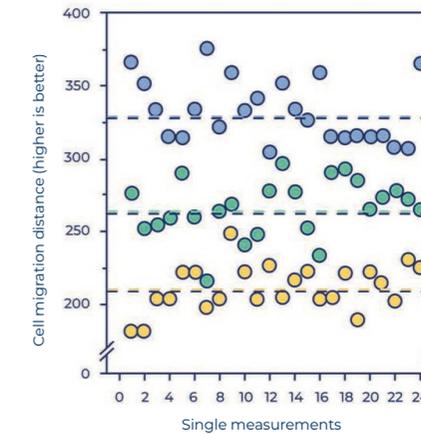

Key findings:

Cell regeneration/wound healing of connective tissue fibroblasts and the activity of functional neutrophils as the first defense of the innate immune system against invading microbial pathogens is significantly decreased by mobile phone radiation. The use of the Amber was able to attenuate these unwanted effects. Based on the results of both tests, the use of the Amber can be recommended to reduce the effects of mobile phone radiation.

 (B) Mobile phone-treated culture without protection
 (C) Mobile phone-treated culture with Amber protection

Note the different cell-free spaces within the dense cell layer.

The results of one representative experiment demonstrating the effect of the Amber on the closure of a cell-free space in a layer of connective tissue fibroblasts by migration and proliferation.

- Blue data points = Unexposed control cells
- Green data points = Exposed and protected cells by the Amber
- Yellow data points = Exposed and unprotected cells

The mean values for each experimental situation are given by the dashed lines in the appropriate color. The protective effect of the Amber against mobile phone radiation can be clearly seen in direct comparison to the unprotected situation.

The Balneology Research Institute

The preclinical research met the expectations based on the observations of the Somavedic effects made by the Somavedic producer as well as the users throughout several years. The casuistic approach evaluates all the cases separately, no statistic evaluation was made.

Somavedic has positive effects on the cardiovascular system. High BP becomes lower (in 7 cases), low BP increased in 2 cases.

Somavedic has positive effects on the nervous system. An exceptionally positive effect on psychological well-being was detected in 4 cases.

An almost general positive effect of the SMU on both physical and psychological well-being was detected.

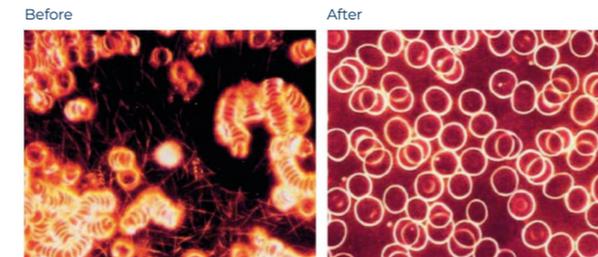

The length and quality of sleep positively improved.

Testing of the Somavedic Medic device and its protective effect on our bodies when exposed to electromagnetic radiation (from smartphones, Wi-Fi, etc) by measuring heart rate variability (HRV) as a diagnostic system for the testing.

Heart rate regulation after 5 days of using the Somavedic MEDIC device.

Key findings 1:

The use of the Somavedic MEDIC device leads to demonstrable improvement in heart rate variability of 80% of test persons. It has a positive effect on heart circulation and helps the autonomic nervous system to maintain internal balance. The measured results show that the positive effect of the Somavedic Medic device increases with increasing duration of use. Examination of an effect of Somavedic Medic device in relation to the stress of EMF using analysis of blood cells in darkfield by exposing test subjects to the Somavedic field for 90min.

Key findings 1:

All patients during initial examination showed sedimentation of erythrocytes of different stages and malfunction of regulation. After the therapy of the Somavedic Medic device, each patient showed a significant improvement of sedimentation. All patients subjectively feel rested and fit.

The very first Somavedic was assembled by Ivan Rybjansky on 1st April 2011 in his workroom. At that time, he had a vision:

“If this would help only one single person, then the effort was worth it. “ The same year, he produced and sold 500 devices. After years of innovation, research, testing and collecting feedback, the Somavedic has come a long way. Now, tens of thousands of Somavedics are shining and harmonizing the environment throughout the whole world. Since the very beginning, Somavedic has had the potential to change the world to a better place. With every new Somavedic switched on, this vision is fulfilling and becoming a reality.

We thank to all of our customers that they are a part of this major and positive change. We wholeheartedly believe in the bright future.
